

FUTURE OF NURSING™

Campaign for Action

AT THE CENTER TO CHAMPION NURSING IN AMERICA

Webinar Invitation

Robert Wood Johnson Foundation

AARP Foundation

Join Us for a Webinar:
Nurses Building a Culture of Health—Funding Opportunities at the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation

Friday, January 11, 2019 | 2-3 p.m. ET

The Robert Wood Johnson Foundation is working alongside others to build a Culture of Health that allows everyone in America a fair and just opportunity for health and well-being. Nurses play an essential role in creating the conditions that will make those opportunities available to all. Join RWJF's Susan B. Hassmiller and Beth Toner as they discuss their foundation's vision for a healthier America and share grant and leadership development opportunities available through the foundation.

Presenters include:

- Susan Hassmiller, PhD, RN, FAAN, senior adviser for nursing, RWJF and director, Future of Nursing: Campaign for Action
- Beth Toner, RN, MSN, MJ, senior communications officer, RWJF

Participants will:

- Learn more about RWJF's vision for a Culture of Health for all
- Hear about the investments the foundation is making in support of a Culture of Health, including:
  - Culture of Health Prize
  - RWJF leadership development programs
  - Research programs/funding opportunities
- Learn how to stay up-to-date on RWJF funding opportunities

Register for this webinar. Once the host approves your request, you will receive a confirmation email with a link and instructions for joining the meeting. Please retain this confirmation email and contact stanaka@aarp.org if you do not receive one.

Questions? Email Scott Tanaka at: stanaka@aarp.org.

Can't make the live webinar? It will be recorded and posted at www.campaignforaction.org/webinars.

Please note:

By participating in this meeting, you agree that your communications may be recorded.